

Kingstone and Thruxton Newsletter

May Newsletter No.6

w.e. 11.07.2025

There have been so many activities taking place around the school this week, but the last Newsletter of the year can only belong to our Year 6 children... We couldn't be more proud of each and every one of them for the incredible effort they put into this week's performance of 'Cinderella and Rockerfella'. What an amazing Production! They did not put a foot out of place, and it really was such a professional performance. The audiences loved it, and it was so great to hear the positive comments afterwards, embracing the unexpected audience participation! A huge thank you to all involved with putting 'Cinderella and Rockerfella' together - an enormous amount of work takes place behind the scenes, from props to costumes to prompts, it is a huge team effort. Particular thanks, of course, go to the fantastic Mrs OJ and Mrs Walker. They have put so much time and effort into making it a success, and I know that our young actors will remember their experience for life.

It is worth a mention that as well as a superb production, Year 6 had cause for a double celebration this week as we received our SATs results back. I am immensely proud of the Year 6 children for their fantastic attitudes to their learning and the young people that they have become. That is worth more than any test to me, although, incidentally, they absolutely smashed their SATs, with results far exceeding the national averages in all areas! Well done, Year 6—you have been incredible.

This has been a week of 'lasts' for me! And as the final Annual Reports are packaged up ready to go home tonight, I have been very proud to read about the achievements, progress and positive attributes of all our children; I hope you enjoy them too!

And so, for the final time, I sign off the Newsletter wishing you a lovely weekend, before we enter our final week of the academic year.
